Koch Pipeline Company, L.P. Donates to Foley Fire Dept.

Koch Pipeline Company, L.P. recently donated 12 quick response suits to the Foley Fire Department to be used by emergency responders for their protection as they serve their community and protect the citizens of greater Minnesota. This donation of the quick response suits will be followed by a second donation in the summer of 2006. "The Foley Fire Department is comprised of 22 volunteers. We greatly rely on industry contributions and are very thankful to Koch Pipeline Company for their generosity," said Foley Fire Chief Mark Pappenfus, left, as he accepts the donation from Scott Neujahr of Koch. In addition to the contribution, Koch Pipeline Company representatives delivered a pipeline safety presentation and provides refreshments to the department. Koch Pipeline Company, L.P., a subsidiary of Koch Industries, Inc., Wichita, KA, operates about 8,000 miles of liquid pipelines.
